Important Notes and Waiver

Please review the dress code, attendance, and other policies described in the SAB informational brochure. In particular, please note the following:

- Parents and family members, who enter the SAB premises to drop off or pick up their children, or to participate in SAB events, are also required to adhere to the SAB dress code.
- Regular attendance and punctuality are required. The assembly preceding classes and salaah following classes are both part of the weekly school session and barring exceptional cases, students must attend this entire school session.

As parent/guardian of the student whose name appears above, I hereby release and waive any claim against School of Ahlul’Bait (SAB), Shi’a Muslim Association of Bay Area (SABA), as well as SAB / SABA officers, directors, agents, employees, and volunteers for any damage or injury suffered by the students on account of or in connection with the student’s participation in school related activities. This Waiver and Release of Liability shall operate as a complete waiver and release for any personal injury, missing person, death, and waiver of property or other damage or loss, including loss of use, which may arise in connection with the student’s participation in the school related activity. I acknowledge that I am aware of the risks associated with the school related activities, whether the risks are by reason of preparation for participation, transportation of the students, exposing the students to the elements and to general public, or otherwise exposing the students to risks which may or may not be generally associated with the school related activities.

I also agree to adhere to the dress code policy and other general policies of School of Ahlul’Bait as described in the SAB informational brochure to the best of my abilities.
