SABA Day Camp

Who: YOU! The camp is designed for young ladies and men ages 9-15. Older? Volunteer!

When: Mon, Aug 10th to Fri, Aug 14th, 2009, 9 am – 4 pm

Fri Aug 14th – End of Camp BBQ 6 pm (Parents and families welcome)

What: A fun and educational Shia Islamic day camp led by Aalims Salim Yusufali and Asad Jafri and Alimas Zehra Jafri and Shaista Yusufali, including spiritual and religious topics along with interactive and recreational activities.

Examples of topics:

- Life Lessons from Quran
- Islamic Spirituality & Self-building
- Lives of our Imams
- Islamic Laws and rulings (relating to Salaat etc.)
- Islam in the Western world – how do we fit in?

Why: The summer is an ideal time for youth in the West to be exposed to the wonderful teachings and quality of life that Islam offers to Muslims. Although youth ideally are exposed through going to ziyarat and attending camps in spiritually rich places like Qum, this is not always possible given the high price of travel, and the difficulty of Americans obtaining visas to visit the Islamic Republic of Iran. An alternative is to try and bring a bit of Qum to the youth in our communities in the form of a educational, spiritual, and recreational summer camp that is run by students / scholars of the Hawzah in conjunction with youth workers / educators in the community.

Interested?

- 1) Fill out the Pre-Registration form (on back or online at <http://www.saba-igc.org/daycamp.html>) by May 16th to express interest. We need a minimum number of students for the camp to continue.
- 2) Older than the age group or a parent? Volunteer to be a camp counselor or camp coordinator.
- 3) Email saba@saba-igc.org with questions, for more information.

Note: A minimal fee (amount TBD, but not to exceed $50) may be charged per student to cover lunch/snack expenses. No one will be turned away for lack of funds.
